GREENVILLE NEWS

Fifteenth Birthday Anniversary Observed by Frank Lajeunesse.

Thursday evening Frank Lajeunesse of North Main street was surprised by 15 friends, the day being the 15th anniversary of his birthday. Games were played and many popular songs were rendered. Refreshments, cake and ice cream were served. The guests presented their host a handsome scarfpin as a token of their esteem.

Congregational Sunday School Rally.

The annual rally day of the Greenville Congregational Sunday school will be held in the Sunday school rooms Sunday at 10 o'clock to take the place of the regular session. Edward Hill, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will address the school. Miss Mary Rogers will render vocal selections and Miss Elizabeth Lane will give violin selections. There will also be recitations and singing by the members of the school. The school room will be prettily decorated with flowers. Miss Alice Taylor and Mrs. T. A. Perkins having charge of the refreshments.
Miss May Henderson and Archibald McLoughlin are in general charge of the arrangements.

Book Prizes at Brooklyn.

Friends of Fred W. Newton of Westminster will be pleased to hear that he was awarded a large number of premiums on vegetables at the Brooklyn fair.

He was introduced to Governor Bedford and his party by Everett E.
Brown and was complimented by Gov.
Bedford for his fine display. The exhibit of onions attracted special attention.
The inscriptions on the pumpkins and squashes caused considerable merriment to the party.

Visited in Jewett City.

Mrs. William P. Greene of Prospect street and Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Murdock and little daughter and Mrs.
Alice Murdock of Boston, guests of Mrs. Greene, visited Mr. and Mrs. A.
L. Stephens of Jewett City Thursday.
Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Murdock and little daughter left Friday for Clark's Corner, where they are guests of ex-Postmaster and Mrs. Jewett.

Injured in Pittsburgh.

Omer Caron, who was injured the first of the week while working in construction work in Pittsburgh, Pa., is passing two weeks with relatives on Roath street. Mr. Caron received a bad cut on his arm when he was hit by a piece of steel slipped off a chain.

Thursday Evening Meetings.

The Thursday evening prayer meetings of the Federated church will be transferred from the Methodist church on Eleventh street to the Federated church on Central avenue for the month of October.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Bennett of Mystic were visitors in Greenville Friday.

Diphtheria at the Falls—Bragg Drives Army of Rosecrans

Back in Tennessee—Norwich Common Council Establishes a Hack Ordinance—Depot Master at Montville

Hurt.

The following are extracts from the Bulletin of 1863:

Sept. 21, 1863.—Diphtheria in its most malignant form has made its appearance at the Falls. There are several cases of it, one of which has proved fatal.

New Montville Depot.

Preparations are being made to build a new depot and establish a telegraph at Montville station to replace the depot destroyed by fire some time since.

Edward McGee, a representative from Cork, and a sojourner in the city of riots, has been "skipped" about town for a week or more in a "half sizzled" state, making himself quite conspicuous and obnoxious. A night or two since we saw him, hat in hand, delivering an oration with a power and voice that Demosthenes might have envied and gesticulating with greater vehemence than P. Wood, Esq.
Sunday he undertook to enlighten Captain Sherman on a proper observance of the Sabbath but his speech was interrupted with loud and repetitive "hick" to render him intelligible so the officer took him to room No. 1, City Hotel, where he will remain until he can obtain a conference with Judge Young.

Grape Crop Fine.

The grape crop this year is unusually large and the fruit is fine.
The native grapes in the swamps are in full bearing and we presume a large amount of wine will be made.
A Louisville reporter states that our army under Gen. Rosecrans has been badly beaten and compelled to retreat to Chattanooga by Bragg, with heavy reinforcements from Lee, Beauregard and Joe Johnston. The military occupation of the telegraph prevents the transmission of further news.

Norwich Hack Ordinance.

Sept. 22, 1863.—The Norwich common council meeting adopted a hack ordinance which was passed by a vote of 10 yeas and 2 nays. The ordinance was made in Union street square on the east side thereof. Daytime rates in the city for carriages were made 25¢ for 1 mile, 50¢ for 1-1/2 mile, and 50¢ for anything over that distance in the city; double rates after 10 p. m., carriage to and from funeral home, if to church 25¢, carriage to and from to and from a party 25¢, by the hour $1, sleigh by the hour $2, carriage to and from steamboat train 25¢. Children half price under 10 years of age.

The Central school district elected the following officers at its meeting last night: President, John V. Steadman; serve till 1868: John V. Steadman, Henry L. Clark, John V. Denison; treasurer, H. H. Osgood; clerk, Mason Kinney.

Sept. 23, 1863.—Lieut. H. L. Johnson of Jewett City, formerly of the Fifth Connecticut Volunteers, has been appointed assistant adjutant general with the rank of captain and ordered to report to Gen. Ferry on whose staff he has been heretofore acting as senior aid-de-camp.

The track at Fair Grounds has been graded, rolled and put in complete order and is now open for trial.

Battle of Chickamauga

The battle at Chickamauga on the 19th inst. resulted in a victory for about 6000 killed and 2,000 wounded and took three pieces of artillery.

Tragedy at Baltic.

Sept. 24, 1863.—On Tuesday afternoon while some little boys were playing around a platform car near Baltic depot, one of them named Dennis McCarthy was pushed upon the track and one of the wheels of the train ran over his body. It is thought he cannot recover. While this was hap-

SENT TO JAIL

FOR ASSAULT ON GIRL.

Herman Santofski Given Sentence of Three Months.

When the superior court came in here Thursday morning at 10:25 Herman Santofski pleaded guilty to making an indecent assault upon a 10-year-old girl on Aug. 28 at Bean hill.
Judge Barnes and J. J. Desmond made pleas for the accused and both claimed the accused was drunk and the child was not hurt. It was stated that Santofski is 42 and is a successful farmer.

State's Attorney Hull did not ask for a severe sentence and Judge Green sent the accused to jail for three months.

CHURCH IMPROVEMENT SOCIETY

Heard of Work Done During the Summer at Second Congregational Church.

The Church Improvement Society of the Second Congregational church met Wednesday afternoon with a good number of attendances. Reports were given on the work of the summer, repairs having been made in the church, new carpets and cushions purchased and new interior decorations made. The financial report showed Alpha Sigma's. The financial report showed the society to be in good condition.

In consideration of the work done through the summer it was decided to devote efforts during the fall and winter along the lines of social work.
Plans for social work were discussed and it was decided to hold no Christmas fair this year. The 1913 pennies distributed as seed at the May festival are to be used in the next month and a good crop is expected.

WEDDING.

Newbury—Morgan.
Christopher G. Newbury of Waterford and Miss Edwina D. Morgan of New London were married Thursday evening in that city. They went unattended to the passage of the First Congregational church and the ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. Romeny Danforth. The hour was 7:30 o'clock. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Newbury left on the 8:17 express for a honeymoon trip to New York.

They did not apprise any of their friends of the date of the wedding, but preferred to be married quietly. It was known that the wedding was to be soon, but the date had been kept a secret.

Mr. Newbury formerly operated a large dairy farm. He sold it several months ago and recently purchased Sound View farm in Jordan, where he and his bride will reside.

Mrs. Newbury is the daughter of Mrs.
Henry P. Rogers of 548 Williams street. She was formerly a nurse in a private hospital in New York, and for the past few months has been a nurse at the Lawrence hospital in New London.
